About the Journal

Journal of Rajshahi College (JRC) is a double-blind, peer-reviewed, bilingual (English & Bangla) multidisciplinary journal. It has a broad scope and covers multi-dimensional areas such as Material & Bio-Sciences, Earth & Environment, Social Sciences, Business Studies, Arts, Literature, etc. Interested author(s) should send the soft copy of the article, followed by the following instructions, to the e-mail of the Chief Editor or Managing Editor.

- Fast publication – Review within 7 days and published within 10 days (online)
- Soft & hard copies are available without any APC
- Preprints are available subject to the author's permission

Instructions to Author(s)

We ask you to provide editable source files for your entire submission (including figures, tables and text graphics) using British English. For the Bangla manuscript, the author(s) should follow the Bangla Academy Promita spelling. A PDF is not an acceptable source file. Divide your manuscript into clearly defined sections such as Introduction, Methodology, Results, Discussion, and Conclusion, covering all essential elements using headings and numbers.

- Need declaration of generative AI use
- Abstract contains no more than 250 words and includes 5 to 7 Keywords
- Reference style: APA or Chicago
- Provide author's full name, affiliation, email, and ORCID id (if any)
- Font size: 10 (English) and 12 (Bangla), single-spaced
- Font: English- Georgia & Bangla- Nikosh
- For Bengali article, title and abstract must be provided in English alongside the Bengali versions
- Funding sources and conflicts of interest should be declared
- Ensure originality and proper citations
- Use spell-check and grammar-check functions to avoid errors
- Statements and Declarations are stated before the Reference section
- Plagiarism must be kept below 30%, excluding the reference section

Avoid any footnotes on a page. Cite references in the text by name and year (e.g., Smith et al., 2025 or Devid and Li, 2024 or Wang, 2023) in parentheses. The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. Regardless of the reference style used, consistency must be maintained throughout the text and the reference list. This applies to papers written in either Bengali or English.

Submission
